

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Countess Adelaid de Rogal Allen, charged with disorderly conduct on complaint of O. W. Buck, discharged today.

Chief Justice Brentano, Criminal Court, assumed his new power of assigning cases today.

Over $6,000 has been contributed to vote fraud investigation.

Twenty-nine Chinamen, arrested on gambling charge, freed by Judge Mahoney.

Judge Chas. C. Cutting quit Probate Court bench after announcing himself disgusted with political influence. Judge Daniel Gregg his temporary successor.

Mad dog terrorized crowd at ball game in Washington Park. Finally killed by policeman.

Yesterday was hottest September morn since 1832. 95 degrees at 4 p. m.

Mary Alesi, 10, 950 Milton av., badly injured by motorcycle that didn't stop.

Four firemen injured when roof fell during fire at Northwestern Brewery cooperage plant.

Scza Swanson, 15, 3302 Archer av., probably fatally injured, and Victoria, 6, hurt. Struck by car at Lincoln st. and Archer av.

John Vito, 2125 Wentworth av., stabbed in head by unidentified man at 22d st. and Wentworth av.

Oscar Hagerman, 37, 11250 S. Michigan av., arrested for parading in woman's garb.

Schuettler's gambling squad took in 116 men in raids yesterday.

400,000 kids expected at the public schools today.

Edward Slasslick, 3, 1350 Bauwans st., fell downstairs. Dead.

John Euoicke, 11, 1446 Emma st., died from fall downstairs.

Elks met at Congress Hotel and decided to erect home for aged members at Bedford City, Va.

Fire destroyed Morris Goldstein's junk shop, 1348 S. Morgan st. Neighboring families routed by danger of spreading.

Six people in yacht nearly drowned when gale struck them on way to Milwaukee.

Police searching for Wm. Jackson, 2413 W. 13th st., who disappeared Aug. 21. Wife fears foul play.

Mayor Harrison has officially declared that the straw hat can remain until Sept. 15. Hurrah!

800 members of reform societies are trying to block appointment of Chas. J. Vopicka, president of Atlas Brewery, as American ambassador to Balkans.

Two men and woman nearly killed by explosion when they entered gas-filled room at 5807 Union av., in which Frank Duggan lay dead. Suicide believed.

John D. Cameron, sales manager of International Harvester Co., arrested when auto tail lights went out, stayed in New City police station 38 hours rather than be taken out on bonds. "Wanted to show the police they couldn't run him."

September Morn, looking more mornish than ever and without a trace of bathrobe, defied law yesterday and reappeared in art store window, Monroe st. and Wabash av.

Stanley Kruga, 36, 4544 Crystal st., stabbed 11 times in fight that followed supper party at which he was host.

Ten speeders arrested by South Chicago police yesterday. Five other autolists arrested for throwing beer bottles from machines.

Mrs. Ignatz Kofozynsky, 22 Augusta st., arrested for bouncing hubby on head with dish.

Band concert in Grant Park tonight.

John Graham, 60, New Southern Hotel, put nice finishing touches on young man who tried to hold him up.

Nick Bisteldorf, 1450 W. 61st st., and Frank Volet, 2107 W. 13th st., probably fatally scalded when beer